To be color blind seems to be the consequence of a misinterpretation of reality that involves extenuating circumstances on the part of others which may be the result of inadequate sequestration caused by a regressive series (Kantian) that is as sweet as honey. as intelligent or more as you think you are. In a previous note I misspelled a word to do with physiology or something or mistake was your mistake. You are offending civility with your with your sodomitical education. Anyway, you may also have an absurd Semetic interpretation that 'El Chapo' finds abhorrent. He loves America, moreover. His people have struggled with American democracy for generation after generation. This is the point of departure that Steve Marteni has grappled with along with See Child in his 1st Hours novel. Moreover, the memorial to the forgotten soldier is becoming universal. Your knowledge is based on arrogance. I am singled out to try to correct this mistake in you - by the use of a sledgehammer. I am not trying to be facetious. Somewhere along the line you will notice how your understanding has dovetailed with a rabid animals. Now you may dismiss what I am saying to you. Your appetites depend on it. That is a painful thing to have to constantly experience from you if one is Mexican, African, or Moslem, etc. They all have come to see your point of view. You dont have one. You are soulless. You are an 'educated fool'. You dont know the difference between night and day. Thus, you may earn your keep. I am half of the way into the Alienist by Caleb Carr. It is a simple mistake to make to be hoodwinked into telling such lies. A New York Times phenomenal bestseller about New York from a bleeding heart perspective. Mr. Carr was a very young man at the time. I forgive him. Contemporary society forgives him. Other thriller writers have not forgiven him. Not all of them are New York products. I had to be contemporary, also. I had to find some of the thriller writers, alive or dead. 'El Chapo' got caught up in their vortex, deliberately or not. His capture is an insult to humanity. I do not expect you to know this. You are a eunuch. I am tired of you. Why hasn't New York produced anyone distinguished enough to have an impact - other than a violent one - on America in many many years? You can't see the law from this angle. You are getting hit mercilessly. New York is an unreality to be exploited by a drug cartel. How are you going to change this? The extradition of 'El Chapo' to New York to your district court is a laughing matter. You are a puppet now. You are surrounded by the false Christ of your own making. 'El Chapo' knows this. It is his job to know you. This has hardly anything to do with being a grand inquisitor. Let's not go there. We are not ~~politicians~~ politicians. It is your conscience that is the issue here. History is a science. Let us hope that it will only become an even better science. This is 'El Chapo's' desire: to improve his story. This way he will not be as selfish as you. He tries to avoid the reputation of a Jew. I am writing to you from a see-sick point of view you might say. Have a good day.
